PART B - ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS.QUESTION 3

Milah and Mamut married in 1975 and blessed with two daughters and a son. Since 1980, both of them ran a real estate business. In 1995, Milah transferred and gave half of her shares of the business to Abu, her son from her earlier marriage.

Two years ago, Milah died in an auto accident at the age of 56 years. She is survived by her husband, a son, Saad and daughters, Melah Satu and Melah Dua, and their respective husbands Jenal and Joni, as well as Melah Satu's children, Siti Satu, Siti Dua and Siti Tiga, and Melah Dua's children, Pian and Piah. Melah Satu and Melah Dua have always been close, and they consult each other frequently on family matters.

At her death, Milah left a Will which provides:

"I leave one half of my estate to whoever is the head of the family at the time of my death, to hold and manage in trust for the benefit of my granddaughters for their university education, to be allocated among my granddaughters so as to best provide for them all, but my trustee's decision in this matter shall be final. All the rest and remainder of my estate, I leave to the Homeless Children's Orphanage, of Bukit Sebukor, Melaka."

Milah has the following liabilities at the date of her death:

- A mortgage of RM50, 000 on the Bukit Katil property,
- Credit card debt of RM5, 000,
- There are funeral expenses of RM2, 000.

Mamut was in Indonesia for a business trip when the Will was made and Mamut was uncontactable. Mamut only returned home in December 2016 which is two years after Milah passed away. He is now married to an Indonesian lady.

In the light of the above facts, consider all possible claims by the relevant parties in your answer.

QUESTION 4

Gayah and Jassar have had a turbulent marriage for the last five years. Gayah refused to consummate the marriage and she withdrew from cohabitation three years after their marriage. Shortly thereafter, Gayah met Emil and they have been having an affair for several months without Jassar's knowledge. Jassar only came to know about Gayah's relationship with Emil upon bumping into them at one social club.

After the incident, Jassar restricted Gayah from leaving their marital home and warned her "If you ever met or spoke to that man again, I am done with you!". Gayah stayed at home until one week later when she received a phone call from Emil. Desperately and stressfully of seeing Emil, she secretly left her marital home on the day and the relationship continued.

On rage and upon discovering about their rekindled relationship, Jassar and Gayah had a fight. Jassar forced Gayah to have sexual intercourse with her and after two month she was pregnant of 10 weeks and diagnosed with ovary cancer. The doctor advised her to abort the child or she may die.

Give the solution to the above situation from the Islamic legal maxim(s) point of view.

(Note: You are not required to discuss any criminal assault in the above case).
